Fabian Albertini

(Montecchio Emilia, 1965)

Lives and works in Reggio Emilia and Rio de Janeiro.

Fabian Albertini, an Italian-Brazilian artist living and working in Reggio Emilia and Rio de Janeiro. Albertini explores the intersection of nature and spirituality to interrogate and reevaluate the connection between human and nature. With a focus on pressing environmental issues, her artistic endeavors often originate from immersive fieldwork in remote landscapes, including forests and deserts. Operating within a multidisciplinary framework spanning photography, painting, sculpture, and installation, Albertini explores a vast array of materials to convey her message. Her work invites critical reflection on how we perceive, represent, and engage with the natural world, Albertini transcends conventional boundaries, offering new insights into our understanding of nature.

Fabian Albertini è un'artista italo-brasiliana che vive e lavora a Reggio Emilia e Rio de Janeiro. Albertini esplora l'intersezione tra natura e spiritualità per interrogare e rivalutare il legame tra l'essere umano e la natura. Con un focus sugli urgenti problemi ambientali, i suoi sforzi artistici spesso hanno origine da lavori di campo immersivi in paesaggi remoti, tra cui foreste e deserti. Operando all'interno di un quadro multidisciplinare che spazia dalla fotografia alla pittura, dalla scultura all'installazione, Albertini esplora una vasta gamma di materiali per comunicare il suo messaggio. Il suo lavoro invita alla riflessione critica su come percepiamo, rappresentiamo e interagiamo con il mondo naturale, trasformando paesaggi e offrendo nuove prospettive sulla nostra comprensione della natura.
